

After The Grippe

"I am much pleased, to be able to write and thank you for what Cardui has done for me," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Gilliland, of Siler City, N. C.

"Last February, I had the Grippe, which left me in bad shape. Before that, I had been bothered with female trouble, for ten years, and nothing seemed to cure it.

"At last, I began to take Cardui. I have taken only three bottles, but it has done me more good than all the doctors or than any other medicine I ever took."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

For the after-effects of any serious illness, like the Grip, Cardui is the best tonic you can use.

It builds strength, steadies the nerves, improves the appetite, regulates irregularities and helps bring back the natural glow of health.

Cardui is your best friend, if you only knew it.

Think of the thousands of ladies whom Cardui has helped! What could possibly prevent it from helping you?

Remember you cannot get the benefit of the Cardui ingredients in any other medicine, for they are not for sale in any drug store except in the Cardui bottle. Try Cardui.

OPERATOR SAVED TRAIN.

An itinerant telegraph operator, "working extra," failed to hand over a "slip order," but his reticence his negligence and proved a collision between two passenger trains by a tick of timing and strength before he disappeared early yesterday. Train No. 2 westbound and late, pulled out of the Southern Railway station at Albion, Ill., where the operator failed to deliver the order to hold it for the passing of an eastbound train. The operator rushed along the track, missed the steps of the last car and fell headlong. On his feet again and running he caught the rear rail, pulled himself to the vestibule door, smashed the glass and stopped the train. There was just time to get back to Albion when the eastbound train rushed by. The operator has not been seen since.

Sufferers who say they have tried everything without benefit are the people we are looking for. We want them to know from glad experience that Ely's Cream Balm will conquer Cold in the Head, Hay Fever, and obstructed forms of Nasal Catarrh. This remedy acts directly on the inflamed, sensitive membranes. Cleansing, soothing and healing. One trial will convince you of its healing power. Price 50c. All druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 55 Warren St., New York.

Summer Homes Folder, Season 1910
It is suggested that any of the readers of the Gazette who desire to entertain boarders for the ensuing summer furnish Mr. L. S. Brown, General Agent Southern Railway, 705 15th street northwest, Washington, D. C., immediate information as to name of resort, postoffice address, at or near what station, what distance from station, conveyance from station to house, number of guests, terms day, week and month.

We will be pleased to see the country full of boarders next summer and would be glad if this notice will induce a increased number of persons who will accommodate them for the coming summer season.

This information should reach Mr. Brown of later than February 10th.

Bright and Steady

The Rayo Lamp

A bright and steady light depends upon the construction of the lamp.

The best skill has put forth its best effort in perfecting the Rayo Lamp.

As the air is fed to the flame—so does the light burn. The easy-flowing current of air through the air-tube of the Rayo Lamp secures a uniform light, with never a flicker or flare.

The ideal family lamp. Made of brass throughout and beautifully nickel-plated.

The Rayo is a low-priced lamp, but you cannot get a better lamp at any price.

Once a Rayo user, always one.
